

Pales Quaker Meeting House
A living testimony to Quakers
Y Pales Tŷ Cwrdd y Crynwyr
Tystiolaeth fyw i Grynwyr

Sing your Heart out.

July 2nd - 10am – 4pm

A day of singing with Sue Harris

Learning, short accessible songs and ditties by ear.

Creating luscious harmonies and compelling rhythms.

Taking our songs into the garden and using them on a singing walk in the afternoon.

Our theme will be birds, flowers and trees.

Please bring lunch to share.

We suggest a voluntary donation of £20, to be paid on the day

For more information and bookings - 01597 851543 or www.thepales.org.uk

The Pales Historic Quaker Meeting House, c1717, is the oldest in continuous use in Wales and is of great emotional and spiritual significance to many both within and without the Quaker community. It is situated in a peaceful hillside setting in Powys near its border with Herefordshire. The Pales, Llandegley. LD1 5UH