

Pales Quaker Meeting House A living testimony to Quakers Y Pales Tŷ Cwrdd y Crynwyr Tystiolaeth fyw i Grynwyr

Enjoy a day out at The Pales

A peaceful and refreshing place for an outing for all

- Spectacular views
- Historic thatched Quaker Meeting house
- Woodland picnic area
- Well placed for walkers
- Tea and coffee facilities
- Two rooms available for talks and workshops
- Flipchart and wifi
- Ample parking

sited in the Radnorshire hills, one mile north of LLandegley on the A44

Other attractions in the area:

Penybont Common ( 5 mins away) a great place for walking

Thomas shop, Penybont ( 2.6 miles) Village shop museum, gift shop and cafe

Water break its neck ( 7.8 miles) celebrated romantic waterfall

Pen-y-Bont railway station (4 miles) on the Heart of Wales Line

The Heart of Wales Line Walking Trail, section 7, passes the meeting House

For more information and bookings - 01597 851543 or www.thepales.org.uk

The Pales Historic Quaker Meeting House, c1717, is the oldest in continuous use in Wales and is of great emotional and spiritual significance to many both within and without the Quaker community. It is situated in a peaceful hillside setting in Powys near its border with Herefordshire. The Pales, Llandegley. LD1 5UH